His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore will arrive at the Bangalore City Railway Station by special train at 8-10 A.M. on Monday the 4th November 1940.

2. The arrival will be public.

3. In honour of the State entry of His Highness the Maharaja, the 4th of November 1940 will be observed as a General Holiday in all the Government offices, courts and educational institutions in the City of Bangalore.

4. An ornamental pavilion will be put up on the platform for the reception of His Highness the Maharaja. On the platform to the south will assemble the principal officers of the State and the leading citizens of Bangalore.

5. A salute of 21 guns will be fired as His Highness alights from the train.

6. A Guard of Honour consisting of 100 rank and file from the Mysore Infantry with band and colours will be drawn up on the platform of the Railway Station and will salute His Highness as he alights from the train, the band playing the " Mysore Anthem."

7. After the reception, His Highness the Maharaja will pass along the line of presentees, who will be introduced by the Dewan.

8. His Highness will then inspect the Guard of Honour on the platform.

9. An escort of His Highness the Maharaja's Body Guard and the Mysore Lancers will be drawn up outside the Station.

10. A second Guard of Honour consisting of 100 rank and file of the Mysore Infantry will be drawn up outside the Railway Station and will salute His Highness as he arrives outside the Station.

11. His Highness the Maharaja will then drive in State from the Railway Station along the following route:—

From the northern gate of the Railway Station, pass under the Railway Bridge, proceed along the Dharmambudi Tank, West Bund and South Bund Roads, turn near the Majestic Theatre and proceed along the Kempe Gowda Road. Thence enter the Avenue Road near the Bank of Mysore Buildings and proceed through Dodpet to the Municipal pavilion near the Market Square.

12. His Highness the Maharaja will arrive at the Municipal pavilion at 9-30 A.M. There will be assembled at the pavilion the President and the members of the Municipal Council and other gentlemen invited to be present. On the arrival of His Highness' carriage, His Highness will be received by the President and the Commissioner, Bangalore City Municipality, who will be introduced to His Highness by the Dewan. The President will present flowers to His Highness the Maharaja and will then introduce the Municipal Councillors to His Highness in a body. His Highness will proceed to the dais, all those present in the pavilion making their obeisance to His Highness the Maharaja. After His Highness takes his seat, all those assembled in the pavilion will resume their seats. The President of the Municipal Council will, after invocation, read the Address, the Municipal Councillors remaining standing, and present it to His Highness in a casket. His Highness will reply, all those present in the pavilion standing.

13. After these proceedings are over, His Highness will return to the State carriage, all those assembled in the pavilion making their obeisance to His Highness the Maharaja as before. The procession will then continue through the Narasimharaja Road, enter Nagarthpet near the United India Building and pass through the Dodpet Chowk, Chikpet, Balepet Chowk and Arlepet Chowk. Turning north, the procession will then pass along Arlepet Road, past Polepalli Subbiah Setty Choultry and halt at Thotadappa Choultry.

His Highness will change over here to a Motor car and drive along the Dharmambudi Tank West Bund Road, Seshadri Road, leave the Electric Power "A" Station to the left, proceed along Race Course Road, Ringwood Circle and Palace Road, and enter the Palace through the south gate.

14. The route of the State Drive will be lined by men of the Mysore Infantry and the Police Force, the squares and the approaches being guarded by the Cavalry. These troops will salute as His Highness passes.

15. Along the route school children and students of educational institutions in the City will assemble and greet His Highness the Maharaja from their respective places.

16. The Mysore Flag shall be flown on all public buildings in the City on that day.
